

THE ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE

Leader's guide: Bi6-3

Lecture time: 23 min.
Discussion time: approx. 20 min.

Lecture handling instructions

- Lecture Bi6-2 is a dire need; students desperately need to cultivate this most important asset. Keep cultivating this attitude during all future workshops. To gratefully serve God with obedience, quality, and hard work should become the desire of every believer, and definitely of every student.

Leader's Oral Opening Comments

- "How is your attitude, fellows? Mine is — - — ☺ !!! Yesterday mine was !! When I personally confronted myself with this lecture my attitude became..., changed, etc.

Discussion instructions

- This lecture has only one discussion item. You as a Workshop Leader may want to develop your own set of additional questions which can help to clarify the lecture for the participants and be applicable to the local situation.

Pass-out material instructions

- have you prepared them?

Practical assignments

- A list of practical assignments is not provided for this lecture. However, it is strongly encouraged for you to develop several assignments that you think would benefit your participants' lives and ministries. Examine your own life and how you have developed gratefulness, or what you think would help you develop it more.

Special adaptations for unique groups

- Think about the special adaptations you need to make for special groups
