Leader's Oral Closing Comments

Prayer instructions

- Center your worship and prayer time around the root question of "Why does obedience usually stir in us some negative feeling rather than a joyful one."- — PRAY — - "Especially so since God always chooses what is best for us?" — - PRAY — - "How shall we as a group and as individuals develop a joyful attitude? — - PRAY — - For instance toward the practical assignments and coming to the next session again? — - PRAY— - Brothers — this is going to take some long-term praying. Let us continue at home!

Pass-out material instructions – did you prepare them?

Practical assignments

- Have the men do their assignment right there after the Prayer Time. Go around and verify if each person is working on writing a covenant with God. We don't want issues like this to cool off and lose momentum by the pressures of life at home. Do it now!

Special adaptations for unique groups

- Think about the special adaptations you need to make for special groups
