

MEETING WITH ESTABLISHED GROUPS

INTRODUCTION

I. ENCOURAGE THEM IN THEIR STUDY

- A. Apostles
- B. Prophets
- C. Evangelists
- D. Pastors
- E. Teachers
- F. Preparing people for service
- G. Raising up reliable men

II. BUILD RAPPORT AND GATHER BASIC INFORMATION ABOUT THE MEN

- A. Their name
- B. A student number
- C. You want to have their address and telephone number
- D. You want their birth date
- E. The denomination
- F. You want to write down their ministry
- G. Then their wife's name
- H. The number of children is nice to know
- I. Level of education
- J. Then you want to know their profession and occupation
- K. Maybe it would be helpful to write down what languages they know
- L. Application, letter of permission

III. INFORMALLY EVALUATE WITH THEM THE COURSES THEY HAVE TAKEN

- A. What has been the most meaningful?
- B. Has the material been challenging? In what way? Please share how
- C. Did it stimulate you to study the Scriptures?
- D. Did it create opportunities or desires to start doing more spiritual work for Jesus?
- E. How about your personal schedule?
- F. Have the practical assignments helped you in your ministry?
- G. Ask them about their long term personal goals

IV. GET TO KNOW THE LEADER OF THE GROUP BETTER

- A. Get feedback from him on how you can help him and his group better
- B. You can help him to be successful in the management of his group

V. OBSERVE THE LEADER, AND PARTICIPATE IN THE GROUP

VI. GIVE PRACTICAL HELP ON TIME MANAGEMENT AND HOW TO STUDY

- A. Give time to your study
- B. Set aside a place
- C. Schedule specific study time
- D. Form new habits

CONCLUSION