

COURSE COACH PREREQUISITES AND COMMITMENTS

Small Group Discussion Questions

1. How is a CBLT course coach different from a regular teacher?
2. What role does educational philosophy play in who a course coach is?
3. What are the basic commitments a course coach must make?
4. Why is it important for a course coach to be so cautious in selecting students?
5. Why is it better to have a course strategy prepared ahead of time rather than just letting it develop as the course goes on?
6. What happens when a course coach forgets the personal discipleship part of his job and only leads the course?
7. What benefits does a course coach experience from good administration?
8. How does administration change a course coach's job?
9. What is involved in the preparation required when leading a course?
10. Why is learning to be a good course coach an ongoing process?
11. What happens when a teacher stops being a learner?
12. If there are still issues you have questions about, please raise them now.