

RECORD KEEPING

Small Group Discussion Questions

1. In your opinion, what are some reasons that record keeping is worthwhile?
2. How does accountability affect our Christian service?
3. How can you bring yourself to a sufficient level of accountability?
4. How do records help people accomplish more?
5. Who do records actually assess?
6. What is the value of accreditation?
7. Whose responsibility is the quality of the records?
8. How much time do you think record keeping takes?
9. What is the purpose of exams?
10. How does cheating defeat the purpose of exams?
11. Because of the culture we live in, most people have problems with cheating. How can you help your students overcome that during the exams in your group?
12. Does cheating on an exam affect a student's ability to lead a successful life in the real world?
13. How are student numbers useful?
14. How do records help us focus on output instead of input?
15. If there are still issues you have questions about, please raise them now. Any questions that cannot be answered in your small group should be brought to the attention of your conference leader at the earliest possible opportunity.