

ADULT PREPARATION FOR MISSIONS

Small Group Discussion Questions

1. Why is a mission trip a good test to see if you should become a missionary?
2. How can you prepare for a short mission trip financially?
3. Why do you think that relational problems are the biggest problem on the mission field?
4. How can you conquer this problem?
5. How can you get over a grudge?
6. How can you get to know that Bible well?
7. What are some cultural values and standards that the church has come to accept?
8. What is financial freedom?
9. How can you become or remain debt free?
10. What kind of things should you include in your minimum personal financial requirements?
11. What does Malachi 3:10 have to say about financial freedom?
12. Before you become a missionary where do you need to practice your service?
13. Why is it important to lead someone to the Lord before you become a missionary?
14. How can you help your church develop a mission vision?
15. How can you create greater mission awareness in your area?
16. Why does success as a missionary hinge on your wife?
17. Of the first four suggestions under "Go" which would you choose as the best way to prepare yourself for longer service?
18. What is the difference between a life-time calling and long-term service?
19. If there are still issues you have questions about, please raise them now.