

INDECISIONS — INTERRUPTIONS & MENTAL BLOCKS

Leader's Guide: TM10-3

Lecture time: 49 min.

Discussion time: approx. 30 min.

Lecture handling instructions

- Lecture TM10 is mostly helpful for people with a well-established office job or staff. If there is a great time crunch this lecture could be postponed.
- The introduction and conclusion in lectures TM10 and TM11 are the same. That extra emphasis will be good.

Leader's Oral Opening Comments

- Interruptions — are you plagued by them? Life is full of them isn't it? Let us listen and come to some new insights and conclusions.

Leader's Oral Closing Comments

- Today we heard an easy solution to our interruptions — it is truly a God idea. "Turn your interruptions into opportunities for ministry. I believe it works. I see now that focusing on interruptions is lifting myself up, seeing myself as more important. Now I can see the other person, his needs, his shortcomings, and his longings. This helps me to minister in a more Christ like attitude. Hallelujah.

Prayer instructions

- I already mentioned earlier that I was struck by the simplicity of dealing with interruptions. — it truly is God's idea. Let us pray about turning our interruptions into opportunities for ministry. I believe it works. I see now that focusing on interruptions is lifting myself up, seeing myself as more important. Now I can see the other person, his needs, his shortcomings, and his longings. This helps me to minister in a more Christ-like attitude. Let us pray about that concept. Hallelujah.
