

SELECTING AND TRAINING FAITHFUL MEN

INTRODUCTION

- A. Outline
- B. Objectives

I. THE BIBLICAL MANDATE FOR TRAINING FAITHFUL MEN

- A. Training faithful men is Christ's mandate
 - 1. The central verb of this verse is not "to go," but it is to "make disciples."
 - 2. "Teaching" is a part of the discipleship process.
 - 3. The other idea in this verse is "to obey."
 - 4. Christ said to teach them "everything."
- B. Training faithful men was Christ's method.
 - 1. "To be with Him"
 - 2. Then to "send them out"
 - 3. To "give them Authority"
- C. Training faithful men was Paul's mandate.
 - 1. The model here is often: one person with another person.
 - 2. The content dimension is especially clear from the Scripture and the Gospel Paul was preaching.
 - 3. The purpose, or the result, was again ministry.
- D. Training faithful men was not only Paul's mandate, but also his method.
- E. Training faithful men produced the model church.

II. NINE BENEFITS OF TRAINING FAITHFUL MEN

- 1. It will multiply your ministry.
- 2. It will accelerate in-depth growth in a few.
- 3. It will enable you to better use your gifts.
- 4. It will enable you to better use your time.
- 5. It will promote in-depth understanding of your people.
- 6. It will promote love and unity.
- 7. It will promote a successful small group strategy in your church or churches.
- 8. It will promote your personal spiritual growth.
- 9. It will lighten your counselling load.

III. ROLE AND USE OF CBLT MATERIALS IN TRAINING FAITHFUL MEN

- A. Level of the courses
- B. The design of the courses
 - 1. We have academics, ministry skills, and character development.
 - 2. Remember you do not need to be an expert teacher or an expert in the content.
- C. Limitations of the courses.
- D. Basic course strategy.
- E. Course coach training.

IV. TEN ESSENTIAL COMMITMENTS

1. A commitment to follow the example and teaching of Jesus and Paul in training faithful men.
2. A commitment to rearrange ministry priorities and time, in order to train faithful men.
3. A commitment to pray for and to only select faithful men.
4. A commitment to be a worthy example in character and actions.
5. A commitment to view the men in your study group as individuals, not just as part of a program.
6. A commitment to be prepared in the course or seminar that you are leading.
7. A commitment to maintain a sense of systematic study and accountability.
8. A commitment to meet individually with members of your group.
9. A commitment to be available to men in your training program when needs or problems arise in their personal lives.
10. A commitment to pray for the men and their families.

V. THE SELECTION OF MEN

- A. Has the desire to help shepherd the flock of God.
- B. Has progressed in his Christian character as measured by the leadership qualities necessary in I Timothy 3 and in Titus 1.
- C. Has access to ministry opportunities.
- D. Has a teachable spirit.
- E. Sees a personal need for long term training.
- F. Has the time necessary to study and to meet weekly.
- G. Has an educational level that is appropriate for the material.

VI. YOUR PROJECT ASSIGNMENT FOR THIS LECTURE:

- A. After praying, select serious people who want to study the Bible with you.
- B. Remind yourself that the training of faithful men is not an option if you want to see things happen.
- C. Remind yourself that God has gifted others as well as yourself.
- D. Rearrange your schedule to make it a priority to train faithful men.
- E. Review the qualifications.
- F. Be on the alert for indications of faithful men.
- G. Pray for God to give you insight regarding who to choose.
- H. Take the initiative to approach individually each of the men you have selected.